Porcelain Beauties
Doll Emporium and Studio

Creating Family Treasures

The Season is Upon Us!

A full pallet of GREAT Porcelain Slip has arrived, including a new color called snow white. Too all who have been waiting, get your orders in, they can be filled.

The Studio has been busy since our last communication. The DAG Convention in Denver was just great with lots of fun with great friends. I managed to get my Classic Grand Master of Doll Making and now have both Classic and Modern. The dolls at the convention were absolutely exquisitely made by the finest doll makers of the world and the western theme was a hoot. A great job was done by all.

2012 will be another busy year with a lot of work being done with the BJD doll's. They are such a lot of fun and are very versatile. I will never get all that is in my mind to the completion stage. Miniature Dolls continue to be an ongoing interest as most of the girls here love to make them. The seminars although not high attended in numbers produced the finest dolls. The Bru's were exquisite and the JDK's were darling, great job everyone.

To all whom attended the seminars a great big thank you! You all make me proud to have had a little part in your beautiful dolls.

Happy Holidays and enjoy our annual Christmas Newsletter! I hope to see you all down here soon.

taken in until the following December. I simply don't have the room to store all the dolls that come in. My restoration work is minimalist as I believe that the dolls should keep their original character if at all possible. All Dolls will be picked up by Jan. 31, 2012.

Featured Student: (Testimonial)

"In 1994 my husband passed away and I went into denial and I was suffering. One day I saw a doll shop and went into learn about doll making and was immediately hooked. It took about 3 years of dolls to get me better as I fell in love with it and have been unable to stop ever since. I have been creative all my life and doll making has given me a whole new outlet in being creative and I plan to enjoy it as long as I am able. The social part has been equally as important as the creative side. With the sharing, the friendships I have made make it all worth while. I especially enjoy making dolls that represent family members or events. However costuming is time consuming and mind boggling to me. Walking into the Doll Studio is like walking into a museum and gift shop. Going to the Doll Shop on Monday gives me a reason to get up. Looking forward to a creative enjoyable afternoon! I always go home with a feeling of fulfillment and satisfaction. Thank You Gail"
